Pray for our Sister CBOQ Church Poplar Hill Baptist Church

Our sister church is Poplar Hill Baptist Church, which is in Poplar Hill, Ontario about 25 minutes outside of London near Strathroy.

Here is a quick update from their church clerk:

Thanks for thinking about us. We have decided not to go back to church until likely September. We are going to have a church gathering outside in the backyard of the church next week to discuss what our future plans might be. We lost one church member during the virus but not due to it. I try to call church members to keep them posted on what we are doing, and to see how they are doing. We do have church service via Facebook every Sunday, and we were having Bible Study on Wednesdays. However, not all church members can participate. It sure is a different world that we are presently living in. Hopefully if everyone does as they are supposed to we can get back to a more normal world. We are pretty good in this area - haven't had many cases. I don't think that there is anything specific to pray for other than the world situation in general. Thanks again and we will pray for your church as well and hope that things go well as people hopefully return to church. As most of our church members are older they are reluctant to go to places where there are many people.
