EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS REPORT

On hot and humid summer days our heavy wooden front door sticks, so to get into our office you need to kick the bottom of the door to open it. Sometimes I think we should find someone to plane that door, and at other times I think 'there is nothing wrong with a little kick.'

While I was sitting in our waiting area mulling this over one morning, a woman came out of a counselling session and asked, "Who runs this place?" Immediately I put up my hand and with a huge smile on my face I said, "I do." She was surprised to see me in the waiting room. She went on to explain that she was so grateful for the help she is receiving from her counselling visits at Grimsby Life Centre. She noted that she did not have the financial resources to go elsewhere and 'this place' has made a profound difference in her life.

This compliment really made my day, as occasionally the negative voice inside my head needs to be 'kicked out' so that I can see the positive in certain situations. Grimsby Life Centre continues to offer help and hope, kicking out the negative thoughts and helping people see HOPE in their situations. We are so very grateful for your continued prayers and support as we provide free and confidential services while continuing to be a source of God's light and grace in this world.

~ Lisa Heuving, Executive Director

COUNSELLOR'S CORNER

People who walk in freedom and health accept help. Help can arrive from many sources – keep trusted friends close – seek out a Counsellor, Life Coach, or Mentor. Get the feedback, tools and support you need to overcome. In the healing process consider the following:

Take Responsibility. Don't blame others. Don't wait for others to change in order for you to feel better or grow. Initiate and focus on thoughts, decisions and habits that can move you forward.

Always hope. You may be facing situations where choices/options seem to have disappeared. There is always hope, but you may have to be willing to hear some hard truths. The truth will set you free, but it may make you mad at first.

Want It. Get hungry for it. Don't just wait to be rescued. Do the work with a sense of expectancy to get what you want and maintain a teachable spirit and good attitude.

Do the work. Be an active listener. Take notes or journal learnings. Otherwise you will lose what "Hit Home" within hours of hearing it.

Where there is no counsel, the people fall; but in the multitude of counselors there is safety. Proverbs 11:14 NKJV

~ Ted Vandermolen, Counsellor

☺ If by chance you have extra pump hand soap, toilet paper, paper towels, or Kleenex we could always use some for our guests.

☺ Homemade cookies are back! Thank you so much to our volunteer who diligently comes in on Mondays and drops off baked goods. There is nothing better than a homemade treat while waiting for a counselling session.

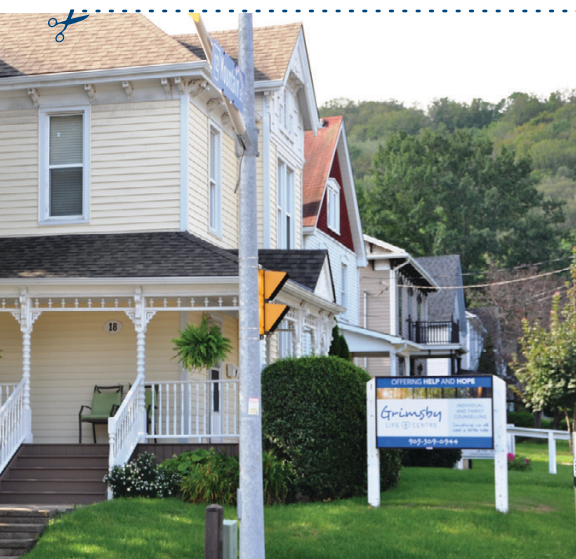

☺ Thank you to Project Trees for tidying up our outdoor space at the back of the building by re-purposing the wood of two messy evergreens. We are also grateful to no longer be sitting on pine sap!

☺ Silent Auction Items – We are looking for silent auction items for our banquet in October. If you have any 'new items', or perhaps a gift received that does not work for you that is 'auction worthy' please give us a call.

☺ Thank you to the Vandriel family for all the work they have been doing around the outside of the ministry centre. It looks so good!

☺ Our cleaning lady of the last decade is leaving us. Happy Retirement to Rhonda! Thank you for being such a faithful servant over all these years. We have been blessed by you, and we will miss you!

☺ Rita Fluit has finished her term on the Board, and we would like to thank her for the wisdom, candor, and grace she had while serving so faithfully for many years!

YES, I would like to support the ministries of the Grimsby Life Centre!
